At Home With Diversity

November 12, 2019

Today, more than one-third of all Americans are minorities.

By 2050 minorities will be the majority.

The At Home With Diversity® course will prepare you to work effectively with - and - within today's increasingly diverse pool of homebuyers. Real estate professionals who adapt to increasing cultural diversity in the market and who wisely plan to meet the needs of diverse clients gain a competitive edge and are able to expand opportunities.
