

President's Sales Club

You've worked hard this past year – thriving in a challenging marketplace.

As a result, you are among a select group of real estate professionals that have earned membership in the Ohio Association of REALTORS prestigious President's Sales Club. Take advantage of this opportunity to join the ranks of the industry's top achievers by completing an application today before it's too late!

Significant upgrades were made to the President's Sales Club for 2009, including:

- Creation of a new "Rookie" category! To qualify for this special recognition, applicants must qualify and apply for the award within the first two years of licensure. Your accomplishment will be noted in the event's booklet distributed at the Convention and will be mentioned at the Awards Dinner.
- Your Award certificate will be emailed to you, along with a logo image that you'll be able to use on your personal Web site and/or e-mail. (Note: you'll be notified by Aug. 7 if your application is successful, allowing you to immediately begin to promote your Club membership.)

Act now...as applications must have a July 21 postmark (if sent via US Postal Service) or received at OAR by 5 p.m. on July 22 (if sent via overnight delivery) at the low fee of $68.
