

Peg Ritenour, JD, is Vice President of Legal Services & Administration for the Ohio REALTORS. In this position, Peg oversees the operation of the Association's Legal Assistance Hotline and serves as executive staff liaison to the Legal Action Committee and Legal Issues Forum. She also works closely with the Association's Public Policy Group, analyzing and testifying on legislation. She is a frequent continuing education instructor, and author on legal topics for real estate brokers and agents. Prior to joining the Association, she acted as legal counsel at the Ohio Division of Real Estate for 10 years. For the last four of those years, she served as the Superintendent, where she was responsible for directing and coordinating the activities of the agency's 40-person staff, overseeing the testing, licensing, and education of 50,000 real estate licensees and the regulation of the real estate industry in Ohio.
